LETTER FROM DR. GRUNTMAN

Hello SPE Families!

What a great week! As we are moving towards these last few days of school, I have had the opportunity to reflect on the growth of all our students. It still amazes me the difference a year makes. Many students have come to share with me how they moved up in reading or did great on a math test. I have also seen many students making great choices throughout the day inside their classrooms. Our teachers work hard all year to help our students grow and "Be the BEST Me They Can Be." It is paying off.

Have a great weekend, and Happy Mother's Day to our St. Peters' Moms!!!

Dear Parents,

We know there are subjects that can be difficult to discuss with your child, especially when you feel they might be too young for the subject matter. To that end, Fort Zumwalt School District has created and works to update the What Every Parent Should Know page on its website (click here). Here you can find background information and resources to talk with your child on topics such as stranger danger, digital citizenship, substance abuse and suicide. Recently, we added resources to help you discuss the Netflix program "13 Reasons Why." Safety is always our first priority. Arming parents and students with information on pertinent topics helps students stay safe. We hope you and your family enjoy the summer! We'll see you back in class Aug. 16.

Sincerely,

Fort Zumwalt School District

Happy Mother's Day!!!
